

Lead your army of mighty critters and save the world from creep invasion! Critters, Inc. is an action-puzzle defense game that's played on real world maps. Learn the local geography and survive relentless creep attacks as they crawl through the streets of actual locations.

Game Features:

21 LEVELS AROUND THE WORLD

Got the travel bug? Fortify all 21 landmarks as you embark on an epic adventure around the world from San Francisco to Sydney. Transform famous locations like the busy streets of New York or the vast Egyptian desert into your vicious battlegrounds.

STUNNING REAL WORLD MAPS

Critters, Inc features playful and enhanced real world maps. Learn local geography as you travel the world and watch your enemies navigate through winding roads and highways.

SMASHING FUN

Is that rat shooting... cheese balls? You will need to teach your army of mighty critters a wide array of defense formations to distract, spook and gain maximum weapon efficiency in your quest to stop these crazy creeps.

ADORABLE YET MIGHTY CRITTERS

They may seem cute and cuddly, but don't underestimate their strength or you'll feel the pain of deathly nuts and berries. Gather up the forest gang and build the ultimate force to fight against evil!

SMARTER THAN YOUR AVERAGE CREEP

These creeps are crafty. Some follow the road paths while others maneuver around your wall of critters. They spook, they warp, they fly over your head... they're everywhere! One thing's for sure—they are relentless at keeping your defenses off balance. Some flying chestnuts may be your best defense.
